

The Campbell Family to Scotland

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

Over the past month my dad's brain cancer has steadily gotten far worse. His mind is all but gone and his body is following close behind. It has been an extremely difficult time for the family, and especially for my sweet mom who has given her all to take care of him. I've moved in with them to help her with him because of how awful he is doing. He is bed ridden now, and he hasn't really been able to speak for going on two days. I'm really struggling to fully express just how bad he is doing. Sorrowfully I'm writing this letter to beseech you folks to please pray with us that the Lord will mercifully, gently and peacefully take my dad home to be with the Lord. He is really suffering right now and it is getting worse by the day. I told my mom the other day how thankful I am to be here to try help her, and to help an old soldier across the finish line. Please pray the Lord will take him the rest of the way to that home beyond the river. We deeply appreciate, need and covet your prayers.

Lord bless,

Tyler Campbell
