Dear praying friends,

This is the hardest newsletter I have ever written.

October 4th, the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ saw fit to bless our son, Hank, and call him home to heaven. Hank had just turned 26 years old on October 3rd. Every medical report came back clear – nothing wrong with his heart, liver, lungs, etc. He went to bed on the night of the 3rd, closed his eyes in sleep on this earth, and awoke in the presence of his Saviour.

Hank and I were very, very close. He knew that I am in my office every morning by 6:00, studying, preparing gospel messages to preach on our radio stations, and he would call me on his way to work (Monday thru Friday) and ask – dad, what are you working on this morning? So, we would spend 30 to 45 minutes on the phone talking about the marvelous gospel of the grace of God.

On several occasions, Hank told me that he wanted to live by faith, and be fulltime in the ministry of missions. This, of course, thrilled my soul. Several months ago, Hank and I were talking, and I told him – you are not my son; you are my brother in Christ! This is how close Hank and I had become in the fellowship of the Father and of His dear Son Jesus.

Hank, and his wife (Liz) had been married for a year and a half. I ask that you pray for Liz as she adjusts to her life without her husband, that God would shower her with His love, mercy, grace, and abundant blessings. We love Liz, and think the world of her. And pray for Mona, Joanna, Karla, Lydia, Esther, and me as we adjust to Hank's absence.

He being dead yet speaketh.

Thank you for your continued love, friendship, prayers, and support.

Keep preachin' the gospel; don't quit!

Grace Be With You,
Tom Sloan
