I would like to start out by thanking all of the churches and individuals who faithfully hold us up in prayer and also those who financially support us. Our last prayer letter I asked prayer for a specific project where I did an American grill out for an English school in Pouso Alegre. Even though the event went well with about 60 people participating, any attempt to do the same thing in our city of Itajuba hasn't worked out yet. It's the same owners in both cities, but the school supervisor in our town has so far discouraged the idea. We were supposed to do it here the week after, but she came up with an excuse for why it wouldn't be a good time. I am hoping to do it here eventually, but that will depend on God to allow it to work out. I also emailed a list of other language schools offering to meet with any groups of students who wanted to ask questions about American culture and practice their English. One school did respond to the email, and I am planning to stop by and talk with them soon.

It was a special blessing to me a few weeks ago when we were able to have our very first baptism. A man in our church named Edson who is a retired air force colonel got saved in October. I mentioned discipling him in one of our last prayer letters. After he completed the discipleship he told me that he would like to be baptized. We were able to use the pool in the Hotel where we used to meet for church. Even though the water was freezing, it was still a great joy to be able to baptize him.

Recently, I was able to lead a young man named João to the Lord. In Brazil, almost everyone will say that they have received Jesus Christ. You have to explain salvation very clearly to make sure that the person understands what salvation is. After spending twenty to thirty minutes witnessing to João, I asked him if he had ever received Jesus Christ like I had just explained. He told me, "I've never done it the way you showed me." It was a joy to watch him bow his head and pray to be saved. Please pray that he would come to church and grow in the Lord.

I also wanted to mention in this prayer letter that we will be making a short trip back to the States soon. Stephanie and the kids will be flying out in July and I will join them in the States at the end of August. We will return to Brazil together, October 7. I will miss six Sunday services here, but Pastor Matt Sherrouse is generously allowing some men from his church to preach for me while I am gone. I apologize that I will not be able to personally visit most of our supporting churches. Our church in Brazil is still so new, I feel it would be unwise to be away for very long. Although our trip will be short, after over 4 years, we are looking forward to spending some time with our home church and with our families. Our son Kenton was two years old when we left and he is now seven. And our daughter Brielle hasn't met most of our family and has never been to the US. We would appreciate prayer that the Lord would bless our trip and place special protection over the church here in Itajuba while we are away.

Once again we appreciate all of your love, prayers, and support.
