November-December 2025

Dear Pastor and Church, dear praying friends!

Praise the Lord for first time visitors we had come to Church lately. One is Lea, in her early 20's, she claims to be saved. Lea is friendly and open and hopefully we can teach her the word of God. She wants to be baptized, and if she sticks with us, we will do it next June/July. We have seen first time visitors on a regular basis, and one might ask, why are most of them not sticking around, never return or fade away after a few weeks. Well, I don't compromise on the word of God and oftentimes those visitors hold positions and views dear to them that contradict biblical teachings. As a result of their unwillingness to change, they part with us. Please pray that we find those people that have a true interest in the Bible and are willing to adjust their lives and believes according to what the Bible has to say.

Sadly so, the quarrels amongst the believers at Church have not ceased but worsened. I mentioned it numerous times in my preaching, but evidently the message has not reached the hearts yet. For me this is a challenging time and all I can do is pray for wisdom and guidance from the Lord.

Yes, we are on the streets weekly, trying to get into a conversation with the people about the Lord Jesus Christ. At the first meeting in December the weather was cold, with drizzle and there was a heavy gray cloud over our city. This weather situation reflected itself in the hearts and attitude of the people we met: they were cold, unfriendly, distant, even to the point where one would say they were openly and outspoken rejective. To be honest, it was difficult to keep a loving and compassionate heart. Again, we need your prayers as we minister to the people of our town.

As the year is coming to an end, my wife and I would like to wish you a very happy holiday season with lots of joy and laughter, but also enough time to contemplate, maybe on Psalm 103:8 »The LORD is merciful and gracious, slow to anger, and plenteous in mercy.«

May the Lord bless you in these days and also in the New Year 2026. Thank you for your prayers and faithful support.

Rüdiger and Sabine Hemmer
