Dear Praying Friends,

What is the best way to raise up and train preachers? You got it right – let ‘em preach! After we started Liberty Baptist Church in San Cristobal in June of 2014, I converted every single church service into a bible institute of sorts, in which any man who was a member of the church, could come forward and preach a 5 or 10 minute gospel message. This worked very well, and over the years, God has called and raised up several church planters out of Liberty Baptist. This continues to be our practice at Liberty, and now, God has called Brother Joselito (pictured below standing to my left) to start a church in Tuxtla Gutierrez, the capitol city of Chiapas, a city of approx. 600 thousand inhabitants. I ask that you pray for Joselito, as he sets out to follow God’s call upon his life, and that many souls might come to the knowledge of the gospel of Christ through his ministry.

Our motto continues to be, “church planting through radio”, but more precisely – church planting through the preaching of the gospel of the grace of God (as Paul says in Acts 20:24), because a ministry without a gospel heartbeat, is nothing more than a social club.

Thank you for your friendship, prayers, and financial support.

Grace Be With You,

Tom Sloan
