Dear Pastor and Praying Friends,

Greetings from Mexico! Our theme for the churches here this year is Psalms 34:8 “O taste and see that the LORD is good...” As we sit down to write this update, our minds are flooded with moments of God’s goodness not only in the past but in the present as well. In February, I had the opportunity to baptize eleven new converts here in Tula. April, one of the young ladies from the rehab, brought her entire family to the service to see her get baptized. We praise the Lord for the change that He makes in lives through salvation.

Also in February, we were able to have our family conference. God blessed with great services and forty-five couples for the banquet. The family is under attack as never before, and we need God’s help to stand strong in the battle. We pray that the decisions made will make a lasting impact.

Just this past weekend, we celebrated the eighteenth anniversary of the Emmanuel Baptist Church in Tequix. The three day conference was well attended, and the Lord worked in hearts in a special way. We would appreciate your continued prayers for a national pastor for this church.

As we prepare for several upcoming events, your prayers are very helpful. We will be hosting our annual youth conference at the end of the month and will have two missions conference in the month of April. Thank you for all that you do for us and the churches here in Mexico. May the Lord richly bless you.

In Christ,

Matt and Annetta Johnson
